

In celebration of National Humor Month and in partnership with the World Laughter Tour, the Children's Department at the Shaler North Hills Library encourages children and their families to participate in the...

The Certified Laughter Reader Project

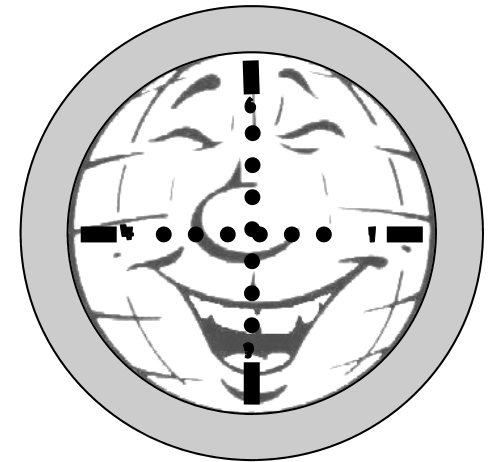

Week 1

Week 2

Week 3

Week 4

Spend an hour per week reading something hilarious and chart your progress on the clocks.

"The purpose of this project is to encourage children to read by introducing them to the naturally attractive phenomena of humor and laughter. Children can grow in significant ways through opportunities to explore their own humor, laughter, and mirth."

- Helen Johnson, International Journal of Children's Spirituality